

JAPANESE CUTS SON OF AMERICAN CONSUL
TOKYO, May 25.—According to Japanese special dispatches from Nagoya today, the seven-year-old son of Harry F. Hawley, American consul here, while playing in the street in front of the consulate and throwing stones, was cut in the right arm by an unidentified Japanese who had been accidentally struck by one of the missiles.

The child, the dispatches say, was not seriously wounded.

THE PRESIDENT AND MRS. HARDING returned to the White House this morning from their trip to New York. Breakfast was served aboard the Mayflower, after which President and Mrs. Harding bade farewell to the guests who had accompanied them on their brief cruise and were driven to the White House.

Preparations are going on apace for Mrs. Harding's second afternoon at home tomorrow, and those fortunate enough to be invited are "holding the thought" that the weather may be fair so that the reception may be held in the garden.

President Harding expects to attend the graduation exercises at the Naval Academy, which will be held on Thursday, June 2. The President will present a diploma to each member of the graduating class and the Secretary of the Navy, Edwin Denby, will address the class.

The Vice President and Mrs. Coolidge, who joined the Presidential party in New York, and the Secretary of War and Mrs. Weeks, who accompanied them on the cruise aboard the Mayflower, returned by train as they had engagements last evening. Secretary and Mrs. Weeks were entertained at dinner by Dr. and Mrs. Loren Johnson. And the Vice President, which Mrs. Coolidge shared honors with the Speaker of the House and Mrs. Gillett at a "Bay State Evening" given by the University Club.

This was arranged by the president of the club, Col. Myron T. Parker, and Claude N. Bennett, chairman of the entertainment committee, in compliment to the presiding officers of Senate and House, both of the Bay State.

The Vice President and the speaker, with Mrs. Coolidge and Mrs. Gillett, acted as a receiving party, with Colonel Parker and Mr. Bennett. A short musical program was given with Charles Trowbridge Titman and George O'Connor as soloists.

The Ambassador of Peru and Mme. Peset will go to New York on Monday to remain until after Wednesday, June 1, when the ambassador is scheduled to make an address before the Southern Commercial Congress.

DELIGHTFUL DINNER DANCE. Entertaining in honor of the Secretary of War and Mrs. Weeks, Dr. and Mrs. Loren Johnson gave a dinner dance last evening which was attended by a distinguished company. It had been planned to have the dinner served in the Italian garden of Dr. and Mrs. Johnson's charming home in Sixteenth street, which was strung with gay Japanese lanterns; but owing to the inclement weather the party took place indoors. Some 100 persons joined the guests for the informal dance with which the evening came to a close.

Those asked to meet Secretary and Mrs. Weeks at dinner were: The British Ambassador and Lady Geddes, the Secretary of the Treasury, Andrew W. Mellon, the Serbian Minister and Mme. Gruntich, the Polish Minister and Princess Lubomirski, the Swiss Minister and Mme. Peter, the Rumanian Minister and Princess Bibesco, Senator and Mrs. Walsh, Senator and Mrs. Loren Johnson gave a dinner
